DESCRIPTION:

The Sten medium bowl is an indispensable member of the family, along with the Sten mortar and wine cooler. Made with a focus on both durability and style, this bowl is not only a practical decorative element for the table but also perfect for serving nuts or snacks. Its moderate size and sturdy design make it a product that will last for generations. Made of beige travertine marble, each bowl is characterized by its natural color tone and unique pattern. Variations in shades and veins make each bowl a unique aesthetic experience. Design by Studio Sagaform. Delivered in a classic gift box.
