DESCRIPTION:

The Hanna plate is made of wenge wood from certified, responsibly managed forests - a beloved and sustainable material that fits perfectly in any home. This plate has an elongated, rectangular shape with curved edges, as if worn smooth by nature itself. It features an elegant, matte black color, providing a stylish contrast to your table setting. Perfect as a tray on the table for salt, pepper, and oil, or for serving sushi, tapas, or other delicious finger foods. The Hanna plate is stackable for easy storage and can be easily cleaned with a damp cloth. Designed by Studio Sagaform.
