DESCRIPTION:

Hanna plate is made from oak wood sourced from certified responsibly managed forests. It's a beloved material known for its durability and suitability for any home decor. The plate has a rectangular shape with curved edges, resembling those naturally worn by nature itself. It comes in an attractive matte black color for contrast. Perfect as a tray for small sandwiches and snacks, or even for salt and pepper. Stackable for easy storage without taking up much space. Clean with a damp cloth. Designed by Studio Sagaform.
