

— ABOUT THE BRAND —

D.A.D Sportswear is a brand of high-quality sportswear that has been outfitting sailing teams worldwide for years. Our products combine modern design with functionality, making them ideal for both water and land activities. D.A.D Sportswear has been the official partner of the Polish Sailing Association for years, which attests to its high quality and trust among professionals.

D.A.D Sportswear is made from the best materials, ensuring comfort and durability in any conditions. Thanks to innovative solutions, our products provide wind and water protection while allowing freedom of movement. They are the perfect choice for those who value an active lifestyle and high quality.

Our bestsellers include functional jackets and comfortable hoodies that perform well in any conditions. Each of these products combines practicality and style, making them indispensable in every athlete's wardrobe.
